Bridge to MBA

The Bridge to MBA program offers current senior students at Rutgers University an opportunity to enroll in the Part-Time MBA Program immediately after graduation. This program is open to Rutgers students from all majors who have a job offer after graduation and an overall GPA of 3.30. Admitted students can earn an MBA early in their career while continuing to work full-time. The benefits of Bridge to MBA are that students complete the entire application process while still in their final year at Rutgers and start their studies during the summer semester (May graduate) or spring (December/January graduate), giving them a head start on their graduate education.

Admissions

We seek a diverse student body to bring to the classroom varying experiences and backgrounds. Rutgers Business School admits those students who, in the opinion of the Graduate Admissions Committee, show promise of succeeding in the program. Primary consideration is given to the applicant's scholastic record, including the distribution and quality of work. Other considerations include professional work experience, professional appraisals, civic leadership and extracurricular participation, responses on the application form, and the essay.
